TRAIL OF LIGHT

ARTIST STATEMENT

I invite you to embark on a summertime journey with me along the Cornish and Devon coast, each painting is a distillation of the beauty and vibrancy found in the turquoise waters that dance under the expansive sky. My paintings are a homage to where the sea meets the sky in a symphony of colour and light.

Drawing inspiration from the Impressionist movement, I immerse myself in the landscape, embracing the 'en plein air' practice. Every brush stroke is an echo of the moments spent on the cliff tops, a direct transcription of nature's dynamic spectacle. These open-air studies later find their culmination in large oil paintings, created in my studio on the Penwith Peninsula of Cornwall.

My fascination lies with the interplay of shimmering light on the sea. It is this transformative quality of light that I seek to capture in my work, striving to convey not just the visual splendour of the landscape but also its inherent energy and movement. In this collection, each painting serves as a testament to the summer in all its moods. It is my hope that these paintings will transport you to the coastlines I have traversed. As you navigate this exhibition, may you find yourself drawn into this immersive journey, and experience the allure and serenity of summer by the sea.
